The Ohio Media Spectrum is a nationally recognized professional journal in the field of educational library/media services. This journal received the American Library Association/H.W. Wilson Company Library Periodical Award in 1989 and the American Association of School Librarians/ EMERGENCY LIBRARIAN Publication Award in 1990 and 1992. These national awards were presented because, among identified values, the journal promotes excellence, is of consistently high quality, and successfully addresses the professional needs of OELMA members.

The circulation of the Ohio Media Spectrum journal is approximately 800. It has been a refereed journal since January 1, 1986. Manuscripts are judged by at least two reviewers in a "blind review" process. Book review submissions are welcomed.
